INTRODUCTION

Cookychim is not your ordinary meme token, $COOKY is a BEP 20 token with multiple utilities. Our main goal is to add endless excitement and laughter with $COOKY. We strive to build a ecosystem that will be your go to cryptocurrency for all your trading needs. We are giving endless opportunity to our holders, high yield APR staking, farming, P2E , our products are safe and audited. We are a community driven token and believe that we have the cutest mascots on BSC. Our team have been in the crypto space for quite sometime and have a lot of knowledge.

WHY US?

Our team welcomes everyone to join the community, transparency and high integrity is very important to us. We will keep our investors first. CookyChim rewards holders passive income, simply by holding $COOKY in your wallet 4% of every buys and sells transactions will be accumulated and airdropped directly to holders address. 4% reward is base on the amount of your holding in your wallet and the volume $COOKY gets. The bigger the bag you hold the bigger the amount of $BUSD you get.

VISIONS AND GOALS

Our team believes that the CookyChim Utilities such as P2E Games and Metaverse in the future. Metaverse will fundamentally change how we use technology to interact with each other, We strongly believe that the Metaverse is the next .com boom. Users will be able to digitize their real world physical surroundings and interact with each other as life-like human selves instead of cartoonish avatars in pre-built virtual worlds. CookyChim aims to be the first digitalized virtual Korea City.

Our goal for the future is for $COOKY to be the ultimate platform to create and manage your virtual world events and interact with each other, and it will be the first game, the first customizable virtual Korea City. We have not develop our metaverse and will do so when we reach a certain market cap.

OUR VISION is to see that our project adds to the growth and value of the metaverse. It will indeed be interoperable and open—meaning that down the road, an owner will be able to use their $COOKY NFT characters in other games that we, or anyone else out there. We see the value in CookyChim and once we reach a certain market cap we will apply for Binance Lab.

PROJECT UTILITIES & USE CASE

We have put together some great utilities that we know will help our project grow and will benefit our community. We look forward to releasing them to our community. We don't like to over promise and under delivery as we grow we will add more utilities.
